NEWS & NOTES

Los Banos

We had a wonderful Resurrection celebration in Los Banos. Our morning began with breakfast in the barn: ham and eggs, biscuits and gravy, and fresh fruit. It was the first event with Cornerstone Church since we began working with them last September and there was a lot of excitement and involvement. During the week the Cornerstone kids decorated crosses for centerpieces. Some came on Saturday afternoon to set up for breakfast and worship and others came early Sunday morning to prepare breakfast while many pitched in after the worship service to put everything away.

We also had a special worship service. What a blessing to have a full worship team! Rich played the guitar, Juan plucked the bass, Jennifer tickled the ivories on the keyboard, while Dave lent his voice to lead the singing. Sara supplied a children's lesson with the Resurrection Eggs. Rich and Dave put together a tag team of mini sermons interspersed between singing and scripture reading.

Many were invited to this special day and we were encouraged to have some visitors. Please pray that their hearts will be touched by the Gospel and the hospitality of God's people.

Up On the Roof

A few weeks ago, we sent an update of a roof project of a rental of one of our dear supporters whose husband had unexpectedly passed away. The roof was flat, so it retained water and leaked inside over the years. We designed and constructed a slightly pitched roof and hired a roofing contractor to install a torched down roof.

Reflection

The significance of Holy week can be summed up in two quotes. "It is finished!" and "He is risen!" Truly they are the exclamation points of the Gospel. However, after the resurrection, Jesus spent another 40 days preparing His followers to spread the Good News. It (Christ's work of salvation) was finished but Jesus was not finished and is not finished working in us. No wonder Paul confidently declared, "that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Jesus Christ" (Philippians 1:6).

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PRAYERS AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT.
